

Downtown Tulsa Gets Ready for Annual Holiday Lighting Ceremony, GLOW 2016

Ready, Set, GLOW! A Progressive Holiday Lighting Event

November 27, 2016

Free Event! (varying prices for, concessions, ice skating, and other activities)

Downtown Tulsa continues its growth as a hotspot for holiday activities. With a full schedule of events in the IDL throughout the season, downtown districts are coming together for one special night of holiday festivities.

Lighting at 5:30 pm – Reconciliation Park, 321 N. Detroit Ave.

Mayor, First lady and City Councilors

The program begins at 5:15pm with live music, singers, and spoken word. Followed by special unity lighting taking place as the lights turn on.

Hosted by Naomi Keitt (Fox23) & Alicia Latimer (Tulsa City-County Library)

For more information and a full schedule of activities, visit www.jhfcenter.org/reconciliation-park

ROUTE A

Lighting at 6:00 pm – Guthrie Green, 111 E. M.B. Brady St., Brady Arts District

Mayor and First Lady

The second stop on the tour is Guthrie Green’s “Glow on the Green,” featuring a special Holiday Pop-Up Market, Live Music, Karaoke, and unique holiday eats. The Brady Arts District will also host the annual “Nog Off” competition for the benefit of the Emerson Elementary School Art Department.

Hosted by Terri Hood & Travis Meyer, KOTV

For more information and a full schedule of activities, visit www.guthriegreen.com

ROUTE B

Lighting at 6:00 pm – Greenwood District, the corner of Greenwood and Archer
Councilors

The continued procession marches down Archer, where Greenwood District’s “Lighting on Greenwood” is in full swing!

For more information, visit www.greenwoodchambertulsa.com

ROUTE A

Lighting at 6:20 pm, Blue Dome District, corner of 2nd and Elgin
Mayor and First Lady

At the same time, we stop by the historic Blue Dome Building and many of the restaurants, bars and retail that make up this exciting district. You can look forward to specials; warm drinks and you can buy a special Blue Dome annual ornament. For more information, visit www.bluedomedistrict.com

ROUTE B

Lighting at 6:20 pm- East Village, corner of 4th and Kenosha
Councilors

Helping wrap this gift up is the East Village District with its charming atmosphere, restaurants and bars.

More information at www.eastvillagetulsa.org

Lighting at 6:40 pm – Deco District, H.A. Chapman Centennial Green, 601 S. Boston
Mayor and First Lady

The Deco District’s “S’mores on Boston” will help conclude the tour. Expect the traditional “S’mores Stations,” First Presbyterian Choir Carolers, Santa special appearance

Lighting of the park at 6th, and ringing of the church bells.

For more information, visit www.decodistricttulsa.com

Lighting at 7:00 pm – Winterfest (BOK), 200 South Denver
Mayor and First Lady, and Councilors

The final stop is Arvest Winterfest, featuring live music and events all day long. Ice skating, horse and carriage rides, holiday concessions are just some of the fun you’ll have at the

A full Winterfest calendar with prices and daily hours of operation is available online at www.tulsawinterfest.com

Ready, Set, GLOW! is supported by the Downtown Coordinating Council (DCC), a division of the City of Tulsa.

An interactive map of Glow destinations is also available here:

<https://www.thinglink.com/scene/845674410940563458>

###